Congress stages protest against installation of Savarkar's portrait

Belagavi, Dec. 19 (Agencies)- Vinayak Damodar (Veer) Savarkar's portrait was unveiled in Karnataka's Suvarna Vidhana Soudha Assembly Hall this morning, the first day of the winter session of the Karnataka Legislature in Belagavi. EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

Elephants straying into farms and human habitats is often blamed on the encroachment of forests by humans and the consequent shrinkage of their habitat, and that's true. Indeed, while human encroachment on the forests were for long around the periphery and the damage was limited, over the last few decades, it has begun to affect the core areas of the forests, too. Encroachment by farmers, the building of luxury resort, the construction of dams and other projects have caused massive deforestation, but even the attempts to compensate for such destruction through afforestation has caused the quality of the core forest areas to deteriorate. At the same time, long-standing efforts at conservation of wildlife have begun to show results and the population of elephants, tigers, etc., have risen over the past two decades.

Karnataka has a healthy population of about 6,000 elephants, mostly concentrated in parts of Chamarajanagar, Kodagu, Hassan and Chikkamagalur. Experts point out that these ecosystems are now not in a position to support this huge population. One reason why elephants are increasingly making farms and estates their 'home', is the poor quality of the forests today. Unscientific afforestation, including monocultures, especially the excessive planting of eucalyptus and teak, have led to an acute shortage of fodder in the core forest areas, forcing the elephants to raid farms in search of food. They have now become accustomed to foods like jackfruit, paddy and ragi, and raiding farms for these has become a habit.

The Government should set up a team of experts to audit the State's forests and to chart a roadmap to ensure that these natural habitats afford enough fodder and water for the elephant population. Man-animal conflicts won't end unless the quality of the forests is first improved.

65-year-old skier grinds to record

Colorado: A 65-year-old Colorado skier is now a Guinness World Record-holder after becoming the oldest person to grind a ski rail. Dave Schaut of Avon said an employee at the Beaver Creek ski resort inspired him to pursue record title after seeing him grind a rail on his skis. Schaut said Guinness did not yet have a category for oldest skier to grind a rail, but the organization agreed to create a new record for him.

He said Guinness officials came up with some guidelines for his attempt. The minimum rail length required was five meters, or 16.4 feet long — longer than I was used to. Also, the rail couldn't be wider than 12 inches. At first, it was hard to find a suitable rail, until Beaver Creek put up a 25-footer, or a rail 7.5 mts in their park. I decided to use that rail to satisfy the record, even though it was 8 feet. longer than necessary. Schaut said he practiced for two months and succeeded in his first official attempt.

The pathetic condition of Mysuru's Main Roads

Sir,

As a resident of one of the cleanest and heritage cities of India, that is Mysuru, it saddens me to see that the road conditions of our city are going really from bad to worse.

I commute to my work daily by Adichunchanagiri main road, which is one of the busiest roads of our city. It was once a cleanly asphalted road, but now it's one of the worst roads of Mysuru. The sad thing is that it has been in this condition for more than 7-8 months and getting worse day by day.

The road which starts from Apollo BGS Hospital and goes till Shiva temple in Srirampura has hundreds and hundreds of potholes, heavy vehicle marks like JCB and other earth movers. On the whole, the road is extremely dirty with lots of patch works.

Why is no one looking into this? Are the Corporators sleeping? Where are the promises they made? Why is the rain always the reason for delayed repair works ? What are they doing for over 7-8 months ? Is this why we should vote for them?

It's really devastating to see this happening in our city, which we portray as one of the cleanest cities, when in reality it's actually not.

I hope this message reaches the right people and these problems will be solved soon.

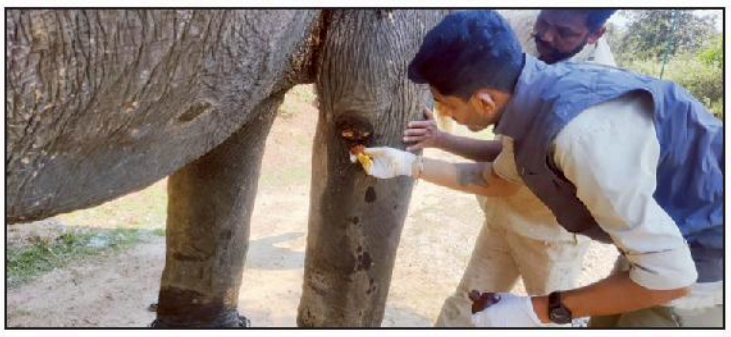
Elephant Balarama recovering from gunshot wounds

- Hand held metal detector being used to detect metal balls lodged inside body
- Ten metal balls removed yesterday; more metal balls still suspected to be lodged inside

Mysuru, Dec. 19 (MTY&KS)- Balarama, the former Captain of the Dasara Jumbo squad, who has been injured after farmer M.A. Suresh of Alalur in Periyapatna taluk fired on him on the night of Dec. 15 (Friday), is being treated by veterinarian Dr. Ramesh for gunshot wounds.

Dr. Ramesh, who had removed about 35 cartridges (Cycle Ball type) from the elephant's body and dressed the wounds, is using hand held metal detector to detect the metal balls lodged inside Balarama's body and yesterday the doctor has removed 10 more metal balls and it is suspected that more metal balls are still lodged in the body.

Dr. Ramesh, after consulting senior veterinarian Dr. Chettiappa, began to treat Balarama from Dec. 16 early morning and dressed the wounds. Balarama had 45 gunshot wounds caused by piercing of metal balls in his body. As there are chances of the metal balls coming out due to swelling of wounds after 48 hours, the procedure to remove the metal balls began yesterday morning and Dr. Ramesh has successfully removed 10 metal balls yesterday.



It is a matter of relief that the metal balls have not pierced deep inside Balarama's body and hence no damage has been caused to his organs. Removal of metal balls has continued and Balarama is recovering.

Balarama, who has the record of carrying 'Golden Howdah' during Mysuru Dasara procession for 13 successive years from 1999 to 2011, is sheltered in Bheemanakatte elephant camp coming under Hunsur Wildlife Division. He was let out to the adjacent forest to graze at about 9.30 pm on the night of Dec.15. But 30 minutes later, the Forest Department staff heard gun shots and elephant cries (trumpet), following which they went in the direction from where they heard the sound and found Balarama lying injured on the ground. Further search led them to discover farmer Suresh atop a tree holding a single barrel gun, close to the spot. Forest officials said that Suresh should have fired shots in the air to scare away the jumbo, instead of firing directly at Balarama, causing injuries to him and as such, he has been arrested under Wildlife (Protection) Act.

Hydrogen-powered train to run in India next year

Centre to formulate a proper policy or a new law on online gaming: Ashwini Vaishnaw

Bengaluru, Dec. 19 (Agencies)- India will roll out its first hydrogen-powered train, designed, developed and manufactured indigenously, in 2023, Union Minister Ashwini Vaishnaw has said.

Ashwini Vaishnaw

"India has been able to build trains which are among the best in the world and the next big thing will be when the hydrogen-powered train is rolled out in 2023," the Minister for Railways, Communication, Electronics and IT said, participating at an interaction with media persons at a private hotel yesterday.

The use of hydrogen and, in particular, green hydrogen as a rail fuel offers a range of benefits, including supporting zero carbon goals as a clean energy source. Until now only Germany has developed hydrogen-powered trains. This year Germany launched the world's first fleet of hydrogen-powered passenger trains. French company Alstom has developed 14 trains with hydrogen fuel cell drive at a cost of around 92 million dollars.

India has already got its first indigenously developed Hydrogen Fuel Cell Bus developed by KPIT-CSIR in Pune.

Talking about train and track management, the Minister said, "Our focus is not only to make trains. We are also working hard on a track management system to run semi-high or high-speed trains."

Online gaming

Answering a question, the Minister said that the Centre would come out with a proper policy or a new law on online gaming given the impact it has on society.

He recalled that recently he had a meeting with the Information Technology Ministers of all the States who were concerned over the effect of online gaming.

"Every State has shown serious concern about the impact online gaming is having on society, particularly the addictive part of it — people are getting addicted, people are weirdly exhibiting behaviour not within social norms, which is affecting harmony of society," Vaishnaw said.

"That's why we have taken up a very serious consultation process with all stakeholders. We will be able to come up with a proper policy very soon which might even involve a new law or a regulation," he explained.

He also said that the Centre is coming up with Data Bill and Digital India Bill. According to him, Data Bill has evoked good response and it will become a template for the world. Regarding Digital India Bill, he said it is being drafted.

'Centre is privatising profit-making public sector companies'

Accuses AIUTUC State President K. Somashekar at two-day State-level Meet of hostel workers

Mysuru, Dec. 19 (MTY&DM)- All India United Trade Union Centre (AIUTUC) State President K. Somashekar has accused the Centre of privatising even profit-making public sector companies in order to benefit corporates.

He was speaking after inaugurating the two-day First State-level Meet of AIUTUC-affiliated Karnataka Rajya Samyukta Vasathinilaya Karmika Sangha (Karnataka State Integrated Hostel Workers Association) at Maharaja College Centenary Hall here on Saturday.

Strongly opposing the four Labour Codes introduced by the Centre, K. Somashekar alleged that the Centre was out to deprive the rights of labourers and workers.

Maintaining that the Centre has brought in 29 amendments to Labour Laws in eight years, he said that this is a classic example of the Centre favouring corporates and capitalists.

Continuing his tirade against the Government, he strongly opposed contract labour, workforce outsourcing and such other new appointment systems. Opposing short-term contractual appointments, he said this was very detrimental to the interests of the working class.

Charging the Centre of robbing jobs by privatisation of Public Sector, he called upon the workers and Trade Unions to revolt against the Centre's anti-labour policies and practices.

Vasathinilaya Karmika Sangha State President Somashekar Yadgiri, in his address, wanted the Government to announce minimum wages of Rs. 35,950 in keeping with rising inflation and increasing cost of living.

He also urged the Government to regularise the services of workers of all categories serving in State-run hostels who are working on contractual basis for years together, abolition of contractual form of appointment, mandatory benefits for workers, payment of overtime allowance and residential facilities for hostel workers and their families.

Vasathinilaya Karmika Sangha Vice-President H.T. Mallikarjun, Trade Union leaders Yashodhar, K.V. Bhat, Chandrashekar Meti, Gangadhar Badiger, M.G. Raghavendra, Mahesh Nadagouda and others were present.

Earlier, a massive procession of the working class was taken out from Nanjaraja Bahadur Choultry on Vinoba Road to the venue (Maharaja College Centenary Hall). The procession passed through JLB Road, Ramaswamy Circle and Krishnaraja Boulevard.

Jagatika Lingayat Mahasabha to host first Mega Convention at Bidar in January

Mysuru, Dec. 19 (SBD&DM)- Seeking separate Lingayat religion status, the Jagatika Lingayat Mahasabha has decided to hold first ever Lingayat Maha Adhiveshana (Mega Convention) at Bidar in the last week of January, 2023.

Addressing press persons after the conclusion of the one-day Jagatika Lingayat Mahasabha Executive Committee Meeting (2022-23) at Hosamutt in the city on Saturday, Jagatika Lingayat Mahasabha Vice-President N. Kempagoudar, who is also a retired District Judge, said that the meeting decided to hold the Maha Adhiveshana at Bidar in the last week of next month (January, 2023) and also to organise a three-day Sharana Mela at Koodalasangama in Bagalkot district from Jan. 12 to 14.

Pointing out that this Sharana Mela would be the 36th one, he said that more than 2 lakh people from different States are expected to take part in this event.

Highlighting the discussions that took place at the Executive Committee meeting, Kempagoudar said that more than 100 office-bearers and District Unit Presidents of the Mahasabha attended the meeting.

Noting that the meeting deliberated on how Lingayats and Lingayat Mutts should be, he said it was resolved to support Mutts and politicians who are committed to Basava Philosophy.

Maintaining that the Maha Adhiveshana would be a non-political one, he said that the Courts will decide on whether those accused of unlawful or immoral activities are actually culprits or not.

Asserting that the Jagatika Lingayat Mahasabha would not interfere in such matters, Kempagoudar said that the Jagatika Lingayat Mahasabha was prepared to give a fitting reply to those who place hurdles in Lingayat religion movement.

Jagatika Lingayat Mahasabha National General Secretary S.M. Jamadar, who also spoke, condemned the remarks of Karnataka Pradesh Congress Committee (KPCC) Working President Eshwar Khandre against Virakta Mutt Seers.

Stating that Khandre suffered from lack of history knowledge, he said that the traditions followed by Hanagal Kumaraswamy Mutt is very much that of Virakta Mutts.

Accusing Akhila Bharata Veerashaiva-Lingayat Mahasabha President Shyamanur Shivashankarappa of abusing him in singular language, Jamadar said this only shows the culture of a senior leader.

Slamming Shivashankarappa for making corruption charges against him, Jamadar, who is also an ex-bureaucrat, dismissed the charges and said that he would become a slave of the person who proves any corruption charge against him while he was in Government service.

He accused Shivashankarappa of encroaching Rajakaluve in Bengaluru's Rajarajeshwarinagar and building a hospital on encroached land.

Hosamutt Seer Sri Chidanananda Swamiji, Rashtriya Basava Sene President Shankar Gudas, Jagatika Lingayat Mahasabha office-bearers Basavaraj Rotti, Sharana Mahadevappa, B.M. Marappa, Basavaraj Dhannur and others were present.

Announcing this to press persons here on Sunday, Shyamanur Shivashankarappa, who is the National President of Veerashaiva-Lingayat Mahasabha, said that the Maha Adhiveshana will now take place from Feb. 11 to 13.

SC/ST research students allege irregularities by Mysore Varsity

Mysuru, Dec. 19 (MTY&TRR)- Demanding the immediate payment of their pending scholarship amount for students who have been selected for scholarships for the year 2021, SC/ST research students began an indefinite protest in front of University Crawford Hall on Thursday.

"For the academic year 2020-21, 46 students were selected for research scholarships given by Mysore University's SC/ST special unit. In the scholarship order copy, it is stated that scholarships have been paid for 5 years from the date of temporary registration for Ph.D courses. All research students have temporarily registered themselves for Ph.D courses during 2017- 2018, 2019-2020 and none of the students have received student scholarships before 2021. But, it is stated in the order copy that scholarships have been paid since the date of temporary registration," alleged the protesting SC/ST research students.

"Despite our continuous appeals to the University during the last two years to release the due amount, we have not received any positive response. The authorities are only giving false assurances and lame excuses citing the poor financial position of the University. Our scholarship amount due for the last year have not been paid and we suspect it has been misused," said SC/ST research students and demanded that their pending scholarship amount be paid immediately.

I am Mysuru's cultural ambassador: Jaya Prada

By A. Ganesh

Renowned multi-lingual actress Jaya Prada said that she is an ambassador of the rich culture of Mysuru and that thespian late Dr. Rajkumar is a 'library of film industry.'

The actress, also a former MP, was in the city recently to take part in Mysuru Fashion Week: Season-6 organised by the city's noted fashion designer Jayanti Ballal at a private hotel, where she was the show-stopper, wearing a golden coloured saree.

Jaya Prada, taking time off from her schedule, had a brief chat with Star of Mysore.

Beginning her talk about the Mysuru Fashion Week, Jaya Prada said she was initially surprised to know that Mysuru was hosting an important fashion show. Pointing out that she was happy to take part in Jayanti Ballal's Season 6 show, which was well-organised, she said that she earned a lot of appreciation for having worn a designer saree that reflected the rich culture of Mysuru.

Talking about Mysuru, she said that many of her films were shot here and as such Mysuru is like her own house. Pointing out that local food and tourist spots had attracted her very much, Jaya Prada said the people of Mysuru had treated her with affection, for which she was ever grateful.

Noting that she would first visit the famed Chamundi Hill whenever she came to Mysuru, the actress said that Goddess Chamundeshwari is one of the most powerful deities and she is a staunch devotee.

Reminiscing her association with the Kannada film industry, Jaya Prada recalled her roles in cinemas with thespian Dr. Rajkumar as the lead role. Narrating her experience with the late actor, she said that she got a feeling that she was working with a monumental actor, who was like a God in the film industry.

Jaya Prada as show-stopper at Mysuru Fashion Week.

"I have not forgotten the hit songs from films like 'Sanadi Appanna', 'Kaviratna Kalidasa' and 'Shabdavedhi'. Many of the songs still reverberate in my ears. Dr. Rajkumar is like a library of the film industry. New talents can learn a lot from his acting skills and dedication. There are many aspects in his films which can be emulated," she said.

Speaking about other great Kannada actors like Dr. Vishnuvardhan and Ambarish, Jaya Prada said Vishnuvardhan was a great personality. Recalling that the popular film 'Eee Bandhana' was her last film with Dr. Vishnuvardhan, she said that the film, which had many hit songs, sent out a good message to society.

"Ambarish was not only an actor but was also a family friend. Although the legends are unfortunately not amidst us now, I cherish the sweet memories that I shared with them in my film career decades ago," she said while getting emotional for a moment.

Replying to a question on how she could balance her film and political career, Jaya Prada said the two are entirely different fields. "A film career is limited to taking part in set shooting. But politics is not like that as a politician needs to be always with the people, responding to their problems and grievances," she said.

"However, success in any of the two fields is not easy. While yesteryear actors such as MGR, NTR and Jayalalithaa saw success in both the film industry and politics, other successful actors of today like Chiranjeevi, Kamal Haasan and Pavan Kalyan are struggling to find a base in politics," she noted.

Commenting on Prime Minister Modi, the ace actress said Modi is in the company of many top BJP leaders like Amit Shah, J.P. Nadda and Yogi Adityanath. "But Modi has an outstanding personality and popularity, which he has earned with his plans, ideas and decisions," she said.

Referring to Congress leader Rahul Gandhi, she said that Rahul cannot be a match for Modi. Though the Congress leader is currently undertaking a 'Bharat Jodo Yatra' in order to enhance the prospects of the Congress in the next Lok Sabha polls, the success of the yatra is yet to be known, she added.

As a tribute to Dr. Rajkumar, Jaya Prada sang the song 'Karedaru Kelade...' from one of her hit films in Kannada.

Developing Chamundi Hill under PRASHAD Scheme

Centre approves State's resubmitted proposal

Rs. 48.3 crore comprehensive development project divided into seven parts

Mysuru, Dec. 19 (RK&BCT)- The Centre has approved the State Government's fresh proposal to secure funds to holistically develop Chamundi Hill under the Pilgrimage Rejuvenation And Spiritual, Heritage Augmentation Drive (PRASHAD) Scheme.

The proposal was resubmitted after certain issues were raised at the 'Tourism and Culture Ministers Conference of the Southern Region' in Bengaluru in 2021. The revised plan has been approved now by the Union Ministry of Tourism and the State Tourism Department and the Office of Mysuru-Kodagu MP Pratap Simha have been communicated in this regard.

PRASHAD is a fully Central Government-funded scheme where up to Rs. 100 crore will be granted towards development of temples. The scheme was launched in 2014-15 and aims at integrated development of pilgrimage destinations in planned, prioritised and sustainable manner to provide complete religious tourism experience. It focuses on the development and beautification of the identified pilgrimage destinations.

As per the revised proposal sent by the State Government, the estimated cost of the development will be Rs. 48.3 crore and this has been divided into seven parts.

Works to begin soon

"We will get the letter of communication in the next fortnight and the grants will be released by the Centre in a month. The project will be undertaken soon after the fund release by the Karnataka Tourism Infrastructure Limited (KTIL) that functions under the Department of Tourism," said Deputy Director of the Department (Administration) Anita Bhaskar.

As per the proposal, the Government wants to beautify Chamundi Hill and its foothill by upgrading facilities, restoring and redeveloping and beautifying the Nandi Statue, Devikere and improving the approach to the Chamundeshwari Temple premises with a guided walkway, interactive signage, smart parking and centralised ticketing and parking facilities.

This apart, the proposal included queue mantapa, stage for cultural programmes, Police booth, seating arrangements around Mahishasura statue, information centre, interactive museum and interpretation centre that will narrate the history of Chamundi Hill and Mysuru with audio visual aid.

Also, the immediate surroundings of the Temple (Praakaara), another Praakaara near Nandi Statue, lighting arrangements, entrance plaza near Mahishasura statue and Mahabaleshwaraswamy Temple have been included in the fresh proposal.

Revised proposal sent last year

The first proposal to the Centre was sent from the State in 2019, soon after the announcement of the Scheme fund allocation. "There were glitches in the initial proposal and as per the guidelines issued by the Centre, the State has to prepare a clear Detailed Project Report (DPR) to obtain grants from the Centre. The initial proposal was not as per the Centre's guidelines and as such, it was rejected," she revealed.

"The proposal did not have the mention of a separate mechanism for the sanction of funds from the Centre. Now the loopholes have been plugged and an exclusive officer has been appointed to channelise the funds. Based on the directive from Mysuru-Kodagu MP Pratap Simha, a team of officials have worked on the proposal since last seven years and now the project is seeing the light of the day," Anita Bhaskar said.

The issue was raised by Karnataka Tourism Minister Anand Singh at the 'Tourism and Culture Ministers Conference of the Southern Region' and Union Tourism Minister G. Kishan Reddy had said that Karnataka failed to provide a comprehensive report to include Chamundi Hill under the PRASHAD Scheme and there were glitches.

Soon after the observation was made, the State Tourism Department pushed through the fresh proposal.

Eight-hour Mandya bandh total

• Thousands of sugarcane growers take out massive protest march

• Mysuru-Bengaluru Highway blocked; vehicles stranded, traffic diverted

Mandya, Dec. 19 (Vinay Karekura&KS) - The 8-hour Mandya bandh was total today with thousands of sugarcane growers staging a massive protest urging the State Government to fix Fair and Remunerative Price (FRP) for sugarcane at Rs. 4,500 per tonne and to fulfil their other demands. The bandh was observed from 6 am to 2 pm.

Sugarcane growers under the banner of Karnataka Rajya Raitha Sangha (KRRS) and supported by various farmer organisations, traders, truck and auto drivers, pro-Kannada organisations and students, who assembled at Sanjay Circle in the town, blocked the busy Bengaluru-Mysuru Highway.

The farmers said that they have been holding day and night protest in front of Sir M. Visvesvaraya Statue in the town, which entered the 45th day today, but the State Government has not bothered to hear their grievances. They said that though CM Basavaraj Bommai visited Mandya recently, he did not have time to meet the farmers.

Shouting slogans against the State Government, the protestors also took out a bike rally urging the public to support them. Traders and owners of commercial establishments downed shutters in support of farmers. A few farmers stopped vehicles and a few laid down in front of buses and other vehicles, seeking their support for the bandh.

As the Bengaluru-Mysuru Highway from both sides were blocked with barricades, vehicles on the highway were stranded for more than a kilometre and traffic was diverted through alternate routes.

After holding the protest at Sanjay Circle, the farmers took out a massive procession to the Office of the Mandya Deputy Commissioner, where they submitted a memorandum and returned to the Circle to continue their protest.

They also threatened that they would be forced to intensify their agitation if their demands are not met.

Meanwhile, motorists and KSRTC buses from Mysuru, anticipating roadblocks on Mysuru-Bengaluru Highway, voluntarily took alternate route via Malavalli, Sathanur and Kanakapura to proceed to Bengaluru and beyond.

Belagavi Assembly session begins

This session is the last one of the current Assembly, as the elections are barely four months away. The proceedings are likely to see commotion inside the House with political parties trying to draw the attention of people with their protests.

Congress MLAs staged a protest along with Leader of Opposition Siddharamaiah against the installation of Veer Savarkar's portrait. They have written to the Speaker to install portraits of personalities like Valmiki, Basavanna, Kanakadasa, Dr. B.R. Ambedkar, Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel and many others.

KPCC President and MLA D.K. Shivakumar alleged that the BJP wanted the Assembly proceedings to be disrupted and it is because of this that they had installed a portrait of Veer Savarkar in the Assembly Hall.

"They want that our Assembly proceedings do not take place. They have brought this photo because we are going to raise a lot of corruption issues against them. They don't have any development agenda," he said.

Karnataka Legislative Council Chairman Raghunath Rao Malkapure said 14 Bills are likely to be tabled in the House. The voter data theft issue is likely to be raised prominently during the session. Leader of the Opposition and former CM Siddharamaiah said that his party will raise several issues including voter data theft. Meanwhile, Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai said the Bill to replace the SC/ST Reservation Ordinance is one among a set of draft laws to be introduced.

More than 61 organisations have sought permission from the district administration to hold protests during the Assembly session. The security in the district has been tightened and vehicles from Maharashtra are being checked thoroughly.

Messi leads Argentina to World Cup glory

Qatar, Dec. 19- Lionel Messi crowned his glittering career with victory in the FIFA World Cup on Sunday as Argentina beat France on penalties in a final for the ages, triumphing 4-2 after Kylian Mbappe's hat-trick ensured the game ended level following extra time.

Gonzalo Montiel rolled in the deciding penalty to give Argentina their third World Cup and prevent France becoming the first team in 60 years to retain the trophy. But a truly remarkable game saw Messi and Mbappe both live up to their billing, with Messi scoring twice and Mbappe becoming the first player since England's Geoff Hurst in 1966 to net a World Cup final hat-trick in a game that ended 3-3 after extra time.

Messi had opened the scoring from the penalty spot midway through the first half before Angel Di Maria doubled Argentina's lead at the end of a brilliant counter-attack in the 36th minute.

But the astonishing Mbappe breathed life into the holders as he pulled one back from the penalty spot with 10 minutes to go before equalising in stunning fashion just 60 seconds later to force extra time.

Messi then seemed to have decided the contest in Argentina's favour once and for all when he converted a rebound in the 109th minute, only for Mbappe to net from another spot-kick, bringing the game level at 3-3 and forcing a shoot-out.

The third World Cup final penalty shoot-out started with Messi and Mbappe both scoring, but Kingsley Coman's next kick for France was saved and Aurelien Tchouameni then crucially missed the target.

It is the second time in five World Cups that France have lost the final on penalties after they were beaten by Italy in 2006, and it is Argentina who are champions for the first time since 1986.

The win allows Messi, at 35, to complete his glorious career by emulating Diego Maradona, and this will be remembered as his tournament despite the best efforts of Mbappe, who finished as the tournament's top scorer on eight goals, one more than his Paris Saint-Germain teammate Messi.

WORD OF THE DAY

Solace

Pronunciation: SAH-lus.
Meaning: Solace means "someone or something that gives a feeling of comfort to a person who is experiencing grief, sadness, or anxiety."
Origin: Solace is a 14th century borrowing from Latin by way of Anglo-French. Its Latin ancestor solari means "to console." (Solari itself is from the Greek word hilaros, meaning "cheerful"—also source, of course, of hilarious.) Solace is not related to solar (that comes from Latin sol by way of solaris), but it is a close relation of console ("to try to make (someone) feel less sadness or disappointment") and consolation ("something that makes a person feel less sadness, disappointment"). In addition to noun, solace can be used as a verb ("he was solaced by the company of his children"). For those of you who take solace in knowing the more obscure members of our vast language, we are pleased to also present solacer ("one who solaces") and solacement ("an act of solacing or the condition of being solaced").
Example: "Mountain biking surged in popularity over the pandemic lockdown—with mandated daily exercise in local mountains, dirt trails and off-road locations providing solace to millions of bikers up and down the country." — Jacob Little

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Scraping the barrel

Meaning: Scraping the barrel is using or accepting something of inferior quality because all the better quality items have been used up. The phrase initially meant 'use every last part of the barrel's contents so as not to waste any'. A modern day variant of 'scraping the barrel' is 'jumping the shark' - used when a long-running TV series is deemed to have put out a feeble episode, having run out of better ideas.
Origin: Following a decline in usage in the late 20th century the expression 'scraping the barrel' has become popular again. This is no doubt because of the reviews of the numerous reality TV shows, which are ploughing thinner and thinner ground. Here in the UK no new show seems to get airtime unless it is 'The Great British...'. We were recently treated to The Great British Celebrity Bake-off Christmas Special - and if that's not scraping the bottom of the barrel I don't know what is. Perhaps Alan Partridge's spoof 'Monkey Tennis' idea might actually get made. So, how about the origin of this phrase. The barrel being referred to is a storage barrel and the scraping is the removal of the last dregs of the contents. The first uses of the expression refer to scraping the barrel as a means of getting the every last small piece, so as not to waste any.
